Mr. Kapp, this email was also received July 15th, however this has also been addressed in prior public record correspondence. WDVA has no history of Public Records Act violations so we have no responsive records as explained in 25-40. We consider this to be part of that same request.

External Email

Dear Records Officer,

Pursuant to RCW 42.56, I hereby request all court orders, rulings, or final decisions issued between January 1, 2020 and the present in which any Washington court imposed penalties, sanctions, or made adverse findings against the Washington State Department of Veterans Affairs or its public records staff for violations of the Public Records Act (RCW 42.56).

This includes but is not limited to:

Orders awarding attorney's fees

Rulings finding unlawful delay or incomplete production

Court findings related to metadata, native format refusal, or improper use of installments

Any judgment, stipulation, or signed order acknowledging PRA noncompliance by WDVA or its staff

Please provide all responsive documents in digital format with full metadata and original header information. I do not accept USBs or physical delivery.

Sincerely,
Brandon Kapp
